Experience

Khieu Mealy has practiced law in Cambodia since 1996. She joined SokSiphana&associates as a Partner in 2012 when the firm joined ZICO Law network. She has extensive experience in Corporate Banking, Intellectual Property and Real Estate. She is also part of the first generation of qualified registered Trademark agent and arbitrators at the National Commercial Arbitration Center. Currently she sits as panel lawyer for multiple banks, and is also well-versed in providing practical legal solutions for clients who require strategic business and investment advice.

She has represented public listed real estate companies in a full range of real estate and related transactions, and also covers litigation and arbitration, ranging from personal rights to commercial disputes and corporate concerns.

Mealy has also been involved in law reform and acts as an advisor to the Royal Government of Cambodia on a variety of land and agricultural matters, particularly the Land Law Implementation Project and the Agriculture Sector Development Project with the Asian Development Bank. Her experience in trade law saw her involvement as the Chief Editor/Translator of WTO Trade Negotiations Materials for the Ministry of Commerce.
